

Projects Overview

Since the 1970's Redcliffe has provided specialist forwarding activities across a range of industry sectors. Redcliffe were one of the overland pioneers operating trucks and refrigerated services to the Middle East and beyond. Now as part of the Charles Kendall Group our reputation and services have been enhanced working closely with the packing and freight operations of the group. From Military sea and airfreight activity to FMCG products supplied to long established clients we provide global forwarding services.
