

FMCG Hygiene Products

Bespoke Project & Contract Forwarding/Logistics

Since the 1970's, Redcliffe have provided logistic and forwarding solutions to the FMCG sectors.

In 1988, Redcliffe were introduced to a client whom manufactured and distributed their own brand of Toiletries/Domestic Hygiene Products. The client wanted to focus solely on developing his International business and therefore needed a personal bespoke logistic service tailored to his requirements. As a result, we set up an 'In-House' operation at our Redcliffe offices, which included creating a procedure to fully satisfy the clients needs, warehousing, stock control, pick and packing, container loading, relevant export documentation and shipping to overseas markets. 25 years on we are delighted to still be working with this client where his brand range and market share continues to increase.

Following the success of providing such a bespoke service, Redcliffe attracted other like minded businesses and now work with companies of all sizes with varying needs.

Redcliffe are world wide freight forwarders but have always been renowned for their expertise in the Middle Eastern markets and handling of hazardous cargoes. In 2008, we became part of the Charles Kendall Group which has allowed us to extend our portfolio of services.
